Hague, July 7.

'A Diſpute is riſen between the States-'General and the Regency of 'the Biſhop of Liege, on the fol-'lowing Occaſion. That Regen-'cy having demanded Contributions of ſome 'Subjects of this State, who being in the 'Neighbourhood of Maeſtricht, hold certain 'Lands in Propriety within the Territory of 'Liege, till the Biſhop ſhall redeem them of 'this State; and thoſe Proprietors refuſing to 'pay, becauſe till that Redemption they can 'own no other Soveraign than this State; the 'ſaid Regency have cauſed thoſe Contributions 'to be levied by Military Execution, pretending 'they have a Right to do it, by Virtue of an Agree-'ment made laſt Year with certain Commiſſioners 'of their High Mightineſſes at Maeſtricht. The 'Owners of the ſaid Lands having complained 'of this, the States have cauſed Inſtances to be 'made at Liege for ſuſpending proviſionally all 'Proceeding, alledging that 'twas known they 'have not approved that pretended Agreement, 'judging it to very prejudicial to their Sub-'jects. But the Privy Council of Liege have 'had ſo little Regard to their Repreſentations, 'that they have iſſued Orders for ſelling the 'ſaid Lands by publick Auction. Upon this the 'Commiſſioners of the States at Maeſtricht, have 'deſired their High Mightineſſes to order the 'Governour of that Place, to detach ſome Troops 'to maintain the Rights of their Subjects. But 'their High Mightineſſes, before they have re-'courſe to Arms, have thought fit to write a 'Letter in very urgent Terms to the Regency 'of Liege, importing in Subſtance, "That they "were informed to their great Regret, that the "Regency ſeemed reſolved to carry on to Ex-"tremity, the Proceedings againſt their Subjects, "by Virtue of an Agreement which they had "never approved: That they were in Expecta-"tion all thoſe violent Methods would have "been proviſionally ſuſpended, after the many "repeated Inſtances which they had cauſed to "be made by their Commiſſioners at Maeſtricht: "But if this Affair ſhall be ſtill puſhed, with-"out any Conſideration or Regard for their "Repreſentations, they declare they ſhall be "forced, much againſt their Inclination, to make "uſe of proper Means for protecting their Sub-"jects; and that they ſhall look upon themſelves "to be clear of the Guilt of all the ill Conſe-"quences that may enſue, which however they "ſhould be very glad might be prevented. 'It happens unluckily, that while we have this 'Conteſt with thoſe of Liege, Baron Heems has 'newly demanded by Order from the Emperour, 'the Evacuation of the Citadel of Liege and 'Caſtle of Huy, in Execution of the 27th Article 'of the Treaty of Barrier, without taking any 'Notice of the Satisfaction required by the States 'for the Affront and Injury done to their Troops 'at Bonn by the Elector of Cologne. Thoſe 'who underſtand and would promote the true 'Intereſt of this State, are the more concerned 'at this Proceeding, becauſe the Ambaſſadour of 'France, who catches at every thing that may 'ſerve to ſtrengthen his Party, makes this a 'new Argument for preferring the Alliance of 'France to that of the Emperour and Great 'Britain. He begins likewiſe to inſinuate, that 'the Emperour by endeavouring to hinder the 'States from entring into the propoſed Alliance 'with France, incroaches in ſome meaſure on their 'Soveraignty, as if they were not at Liberty to 'make what Alliances they pleaſe. The Impe-'rial Miniſter being aware of the dangerous Ten-'dency of this Inſinuation, argues in Anſwer to 'it, that his Imperial Majeſty does not in any 'wiſe intrude into or queſtion their Soveraign-'ty, but aſſerts that it cannot give them a Right 'to diſpoſe of what is another's, which they 'would do, ſhould they enter into an Alliance 'with France to maintain the Peace of Utrecht; 'for by ſo doing, they would concurr to the 'Subverſion of his Imperial Majeſty's Right to 'the Spaniſh Monarchy, the preſent King of 'Spain being acknowledged by the Peace of 'Utrecht. Beſides, as under the Term of main-'taining that Peace, France would comprehend 'all the Treaties of Peace made at Utrecht, 'and by Conſequence that between the King 'of Spain and the Duke of Savoy, this State 'would thereby be obliged to own that Duke 'for King of Sicily, and enter into a kind of 'Engagement to ſupport him in the Poſſeſſion 'of that Kingdom; which Step the States con-'ſtantly avoided taking during the whole Courſe 'of thoſe Negociations, notwithſtanding the ur-'gent and even threatning Inſtances of a cer-'tain Plenipotentiary then in this Country. For 'theſe Reaſons, the ſaid Imperial Miniſter inti-'mates, that his Court cannot look upon ſuch 'a Tranſaction ſo unſuitable to the Amity now 'happily ſubſiſting, any otherwiſe than as an 'open and avowed Partiality for France. From 'this it may be judged, what Perplexity this 'State muſt be in, being ſo earneſtly ſollicited 'by theſe two Miniſters, whoſe Maſters have 'ſuch different Intereſts and Views, and who 'have each their Party among us.
